LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¼ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated May 1st, 1930.

473-my1 W. H. LANGLEY,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.

(8.) To manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in all kinds of goods, wares, and merchandise, and to carry on the business of general traders:

(9.) To act as agents for any person, firm, or company or corporation, to act as manufacturers' and sales' agents, and to carry on a general agency business, and also as agents a commission and brokerage business in all its branches:

(10.) To develop and improve lands, and use the productiveness thereof for agricultural, horticultural, and grazing purposes; to supply seeds; to manufacture and otherwise produce, purchase, and otherwise acquire, sell, supply, and deal in implements, appliances, fertilizers, and other articles and things required, used, or necessary for the proper and successful cultivation of the soil; and to provide arrangements and facilities for the purchase, sale, transportation, and storage of the products of the soil and of any of the articles and things above mentioned:

(11.) To carry on the business of dealers and traders in live stock (which term shall include horses, cattle, sheep, pigs, and other useful and merchantable animals and poultry), and the business of farmers, live-stock ranchers, and also the business of buying, selling, and trafficking in live stock by auction or otherwise:

(12.) To carry on the business of proprietors or lessees of docks, wharves, jetties, piers, warehouses, cold-storage and refrigeration plants, and of wharfingers and warehousemen:

(13.) To carry on the business of manufacturers of lumber and woodenware, and to buy, own, hold, sell, and deal in timber limits, timber lands and logs, and to manufacture, buy, sell, and deal in timber, lumber, and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture articles in the making of which timber or wood is required or can be utilized:

(14.) To manufacture and produce, trade, and deal in all machinery, plant, articles, appliances, and things capable of being manufactured, produced, or traded in by virtue of or in connection with any such brevets d'invention, concessions, licences, inventions, rights, and privileges as aforesaid:

(15.) To advance money to any person or persons or corporation, either at interest or without, upon the security of freehold or leasehold estate, by way of mortgage, or upon any marketable security:

(16.) To acquire the good-will of any business, and to acquire or undertake the sale of all or any of the assets and liabilities of any such business, and take over as a going concern the business in connection therewith:

(17.) To promote or form, or assist in the promotion or formation, of any companies, businesses, or undertakings having objects wholly or in part similar to those of this Company, or for the purpose of acquiring, purchasing, holding, working, or otherwise dealing with any property of the Company, or in which this Company is interested, or for any other purpose, with power generally to assist such companies' businesses or undertakings, and in particular by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses thereof, or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or disposing of shares therein, or by lending money thereto, upon debentures or otherwise, and further to pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses attending the issue of any prospectus, circular, or notice connected with this or any other company:

(18.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, sell, and, subject to the provisions of the "Insurance Act" of the Province of British Columbia, to give guarantees by way of underwriting or otherwise in relation to stock, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any municipal, public, or local board or authority; provided always that the funds of this Company shall not be employed in purchasing or acquiring its own shares, or in loans upon the security thereof:

(19.) Generally to carry on any other business (except the business of banking, the construction and operation of railways, telegraph, and telephone lines, the business of insurance, or the business of a trust company) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently or profitably carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value and render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights, and to do all and everything necessary, suitable, convenient, or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes, or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated, or incidental to the powers herein named, or which shall at any time appear to be conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Company. And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause, the meaning of the Company's objects shall not be restricted by reference to any other object or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen and not restrict the powers of the Company:

(20.) To apply for in the name of the Company or other corporation or person, promote, support, and obtain, in Canada or elsewhere in the world, from any Government or other authority, any Act of Parliament, charter, Provincial or other order, concessions, grants from the Government, or authorization for enabling the Company or any other corporation or person to carry into effect any of the objects of the Company, or for effecting any modification in the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any bills, orders, proceedings, or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company.

(b.) To construct, lay down, establish, fix, carry out, and maintain all necessary cables, wires, lines, accumulators, lamps, and works, and to generate, accumulate, distribute, and supply electricity, and to light mines, cities, towns, streets, docks, markets, theatres, buildings, and places, both public and private, and to construct, lay down, acquire, fix, carry out, and maintain dams, canals, pipe-lines, conduits, ditches, and any other means now or hereafter known for the conveyance of water:

(c.) To apply for, obtain, hold, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire water, water records, water rights, licences, and franchises:

(d.) To have, take, exercise, and enjoy all the rights, powers, privileges, and advantages created, provided, and conferred on licensees of water and on power companies by the "Water Act" of the Province of British Columbia or any amendments thereto, or any other Act passed in substitution therefor or as an extension thereof, or by the laws of any country, state, or Province in which the Company may carry on business:

(e.) To construct, equip, maintain, and operate electrical works and power-houses and works of every nature and description, used or necessary for the diversion, utilization, holding, carrying, or conducting of water or power, including works as defined by the said "Water Act" or any such other Act or laws:

(f.) To distribute, sell, supply, or use water for mechanical, industrial, irrigation, power, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used to persons or companies:

(g.) To instal and operate telephone systems, including telephone-lines, stations, toll-offices, exchanges, plants, equipment, wires, cables, and works used or connected therewith or incidental thereto:

(h.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire real property, lands, tenements, and hereditaments of any tenure and of all kinds and descriptions, and any interest therein, and personal property of any and all kinds and descriptions, and any interest therein, and to hold, develop, improve, deal in, manage, rent, mortgage, hypothecate, or otherwise encumber, exchange, sell, or in any way dispose of the same or any part thereof, or any interest therein:

(i.) To maintain and operate warehouses, cold-storage plants, canneries, creameries, or factories for the storing, canning, preserving, manufacturing, or preparing for market of fruits, vegetables, and vegetable products, meats, poultry, fish and animal products, and to buy, sell, and deal in farm produce of all kinds, and whether in the raw state or manufactured or prepared for market or use in any manner:

(j.) To acquire and take over by purchase or otherwise in any way whatsoever all or any part of the stock-in-trade, plant, leases, licences, options and agreements, and all other goods and chattels, personal property and real property and assets of any person, firm, or corporation, or of any business whatsoever and wheresoever carried on, or which may at any time be carried on, either subject to the whole or part of the liabilities thereof respectively, or otherwise as may be agreed, and in either or any of the above cases, and in the case of any debt or account owing or payable by the Company at any time to any person, firm, or corporation (including any shareholder or director of the Company) to pay for the same either in money or debentures or bonds or shares of the Company, or partly in money and partly in shares or bonds or debentures of the Company, or partly in shares and partly in bonds or debentures of the Company, said shares in any or either case to be either partly or fully paid up:

(k.) To carry on business as investors, capitalists, financiers, and promoters, and to execute and carry on all kinds of financial, commercial, trading, and other operations, and to carry on the business of promoting, establishing, administering, operating, purchasing, acquiring, disposing of and otherwise dealing in and with financial, commercial, industrial, manufacturing, transportation, agricultural, mining, and other enterprises with a view to profit:

(l.) To enter into partnership or any arrangements for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit the Company, and to lend money to and, subject to the "Insurance Act," guarantee the contracts of or otherwise assist any such person or company, or of any customer, and to take or otherwise acquire securities of any such person, company, or customer, or share of such company, and to sell, hold, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(m.) To sell, exchange, lease, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the lands, rights, or other property or effects of the Company, or any part thereof, of any kind or nature whatsoever, or the undertaking of the Company, or any part thereof, either to individual persons or companies, with power to accept shares or debentures in other companies and (in the case of shares) either wholly or partly paid up as consideration for the above, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of such debentures and shares as may be deemed most expedient, and to guarantee the repayment thereof or the payment of interest thereon:

(u.) To promote or assist in promoting any company or companies for the purpose of taking over, acquiring, or working any property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company, and either in the Dominion of Canada or the Province of British Columbia, or elsewhere:

(o.) To apply for any Acts, Orders in Council, certificates, licences, or any other powers or authorities which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects or otherwise in the interests of the Company, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(p.) None of the preceding subclauses or objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be independent main objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted in reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.
